BREED THEATER. A Daughter of the Sioux, Thrilling In dian Picture.

Surely the Broed theater has outflome itself in feature pictures for this week, as any person who attended the performance last evening can attest.
There is beauty in every picture presented, the superb picture entitled Burled Alive being photographed in the sublime Yosemite valley, the visita showing the beautiful falls and surreunding landscape being utilized for the background of the many preliminary scenes and adding an educational value to bhis already interesting film.
Every scene following is equally as beautiful, being photographed at the foot of the falls, showing the cataract.
There is an exciting but tangible story would be difficult to pick out the ature with a thrilling story and pre-inted by genuine Sloux Indians and alisted United States regulars.

GAYLORD SANITARIUM

Encouraging Work in Battle Against Tuberculosis. In the fifth annual report of the Mew Haven County Anti-Tuberchlosis association concerning the work of the Garlord Farm sanitarium, at Wallingford, the report of the dispensary work, by Dr. Frank B. Standish, forms an interesting chapter. "At the close of the second year," eays the report. The tuberculosis clinic shows continued growth, both in the number of patients treated and in affectiveness. The efficiency of the clinic has been greatly increased during the past year through the active co-operation of the Visiting Nurse association. Miss Markham, the nurse whose time was Visiting Nurse association. Miss Markham, the nurse whose time was devoted to tuberculosis work last year, has continued in charge of this work and has at times been assisted by the ether visiting nurses. By means of funds, obtained through efforts of the Visiting Nurse association, milk and viggs have been furnished to about 30 patients during the year, this necessitaling a supply of 600 quarts of milk and 120 dozen eggs each month. In addition to this, several patients have been maintained at the sanitarium and in the country by this association and many patients have been supplied with many patients have been supplied with reclining chairs, clothing and other supplies. Various other charitable ornizations have assisted in the work the clinic. Among these may be entioned the Sunshine society, the Ming's Daughter and the Lella Day nursery. There have been admitted to the clinic during the year 50 pa-tients who gave definite signs of tu-barculosis. These, with the 72 patients admitted last year, make a total-of 172 patients treated at the clinic since it was established."

> HIDDEN FOR 40 YEARS. Man Finds $30,000 Cash in Grandfather's Safe.

Joseph D. Unangst, a farmer living hear Farmersville, about four miles from Easton, Pa., has unexpectedly come into possession of $30,000. For a number of years Unansst has had an old the company of the com had an old iron safe which was given to him by his father, who in turn re-ceived it from his father. The safe was red with the rust of 40 years. It was not opened during all those years, as it not opened during all those years, as it was not known to centain anything of special value. The door to it was locked, and no key was known to be around that would unlock it. The safe was pushed around from one corner to another in odd places in an old building. Unangst decided to sell the safe to a junk dealer to get it out of the way and realize something on it, but he thought that before he would let it go out of his hands he would open it and see if it contained any valuables. He tried to open it with ktys, but the old-fashiened lock was rusted and held fast.

Finally Unangst secured an expert at safe opening and the door was drilled open. It was then found that the few compartments in the safe were filled with money. Unangst found that the pile contained $20,000, all in gold.

The money is supposed to have been put into the safe by Unangst's grandfather, who has been dead 40 years.

A NIGHT IN JUNE. Long I had loved her, long had dared To hope she might return my love. And now at last I knew she cared. Forth from her window, high shove, She fondly looked and heard my pleas, And modestly encouraged me.

No fairer maiden ever gazed
Out on a lover in the night;
My ladder carefully I raised My arms were strong, my heart was light;
The deep concern she showed was sweet—
A moment more and we would meet. Up, up I climbed to her and bliss.

Her arms around my neck were thrown;

Our glad lips met is one long klass.

My yearning heart had claimed its own;

own;
It seemed as if the stars with glee
Were singing down to her and me. Out from the window ledge she swung,
Her glad heart beating on my breast;
I bore her downward, rung by rung.
What time she looked her lovellest;
But presently the ladder broke,
And I awoke.

"There is no place in the world for me." "Why not?" "Nobody under-stands me." "Then there is a place in the world for you. Get a job as a train announcer."—Kansas City Journal.

MUCH IN LITTLE A Tennessee man proposes to climb Mt. McKinley in a balloon. For some reason or other this does not sound quite like mountain climbing.

According to the Hospital, London, some English physicians are ordering patients to cut oysters that have been well soaked in sea water as a cure for dyspepsia and tuberculosis. A piane steel that will accommodate but one person under ordinary circum-stances, but which contains leaves which can be spread to held two to play ducts, has been invented by a Chi-cagoan.

There were only two English Thanks-givings in the last century. One was on February 27, 1873, for the recovery of the Prince of Wales from illness: the other June 24, 1887, for the queen's At 9 Paganini was composing sonat-as, while Halfe, the great Irish compos-er, it is claimed, wrote "Loyar"s Mis-take," a song which was sung by the prima donna, Mine, Vestria, in the dra-ma "Paul Pry."

Our first consignment for Fall and Spring received. In the vicinty of Concepcion and Talcahuane, Chili, there are more than 80,000,000 cubic meters of soft coal of fair quality within an area of 80,000 square meters, or about 30.7 square miles. The vein is 3.55 meters, or Commercial possibility,

Guayule rubber is extracted from a shrub colled guayule, which grows in the mountainous parts of the states of Coahulla. San Buis, Potosi, Durango and Chihuahua. For many years it was known that this plant contained rubber, but not until 1300 was a process discovered whereby it was made a commercial possibility.
